Profile

I'm a full-stack web developer situated in the lively city of Los Angeles, CA. With experiences in both front end and back end, I have a repertoire of skills that allow me to tackle a wide range of projects, such as simpler portfolio building sites with a functional, built from the ground up, content management system, to full blown web applications that can rival the likes of Canva or Readymag.

Work Experience

East of Western

August 2024 - Current (Contract)

Full Stack Web Developer

- Helping build multiple web projects utilizing different front ends, such as Sveltekit and React.
- Building cohesive and smart UX/UI with SCSS implemented with different libraries such as GSAP and SwiperJS.
- Utilizing payment systems for our subscription model with Stripe payment APIs.
- Creating an expansive backend with Node.js, Supabase, and AWS.

3Plus Management

May 2024 - November 2024 (Contract)

Full Stack Web Developer

- Utilizing a front end with Typescript, Tailwind, and React, I created a fully dynamic website that allows the client to publish galleries for their production talent agency.
- With a Node Express backend, I built an expansive server for the client that allows them to host their images and all the artist data that is necessary to share their portfolios.
- Connected the server with cloud tools like AWS S3 and RDS to make sure my client has a database that is always secure and expandable.

Skills

- Front End Skills: Tailwind, jQuery, Handlebars, React, Svelte/Sveltekit, Next.js, GSAP Animation
- Back End Skills: Node, Express, REST, SQL (MySQL, Postgres), NoSQL, AWS(DynamoDB, S3, Aurora and RDS, IAM), GraphQL, Supabase
- Programming Languages: Javascript, Typescript, CSS/SCSS, HTML, Python, C#, C++, Java
- Language Skills: Studying Japanese for 10 years with a JLPT N4 Certification and currently going for a N3/N2 Certification
